DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

The District Alliance for Safe Housing, Inc (DASH) respects the privacy of its donors and has put in place a Donor Privacy Policy to honor these relationships. Support from individual donors, corporations, foundations, volunteers, and public funders is critical to our work. Together, we are creating a community where every home is a safe place for survivors of domestic and sexual violence and their families in the District.

I. DASH collects and maintains the following types of donor information:

- Contact information including name, address, telephone number and e-mail address
- Giving information and history of involvement
- Specific program or funding interests
- Other comments or suggestions, relevant to the donor

This confidential information is kept on file to comply with IRS guidelines. This information is shared internally on a confidential, and need-to-know basis.

- II. DASH does not sell, rent, trade or share its donor list with any other organization, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.
- III. DASH honors donor preferences with regard to the method and frequency of communication.
